Case # _____

Defendant

MOTION TO PAY JUDGMENT BY INSTALLMENTS

_____, Judgment Debtor, petitions to be permitted to pay the Chancery Court Clerk and Master (every week / every other week / every month) the sum of $_____. This payment is to be applied to court costs in this case, and then to the judgment entered against the judgment debtor. This judgment totals $_____. The Judgment Debtor seeks an order to allow payment to begin on _____, 200__, pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated § 26-2-216. These payments are to continue thereafter until the judgment is paid. The Judgment Debtor also requests all further writs of garnishment against wages or salary be stayed, contingent on compliance with such payments.

NOTE: The filing of this motion by the debtor shall stay the issuance, execution or return of any writ of garnishment against wages or salary due the judgment debtor or any other funds belonging to the judgment debtor sought to be substituted to the satisfaction of payment of or upon such judgment during the period that the judgment debtor or any other funds belonging to the judgment debtor sought to be substituted to the satisfaction of payment of or upon such judgment during the period that the judgment debtor complies with the order of the court.
